

There have always been ideas worth fighting for

Welcome to People's History Museum, the national museum of democracy, telling the story of its development in Britain: past, present and future.

Please ask a member of staff if you need any help

GROUND FLOOR

LOWER GROUND

Archive & Study Centre
Please speak to a member of staff to arrange a visit to research the archival collection.

FIRST FLOOR

Main Gallery One

DON'T MISS:

Peterloo Massacre

Uncover the story of that day

Thomas Paine's writing desk

Imagine the life of one of Britain's greatest revolutionaries

Liverpool Tin Plate Workers banner

View the oldest surviving trade union banner in the world

A day in the match factory

Experience the working conditions at Bryant & May in 1888

Hannah Mitchell's kitchen

Discover a suffragette's home

Banner exhibition

Visit this year's selection of historic and contemporary banners

SECOND FLOOR

Main Gallery Two

DON'T MISS:

National Health Service

See material from the birth of the NHS

Strikes AR experience

Get closer to objects from strikes that changed the face of protest

Never Going Underground t-shirt

Delve into the decades long fight for LGBT+ equality

Co-op shop

Explore the pioneering shop that put people before profit

The Conservation Studio

Peek behind the scenes into a working conservation studio