

Map & Directions

People's History Museum, Left Bank, Spinningfields, Manchester M3 3ER

Check with travel providers for more information on their services. Visit Transport for Greater Manchester's website for further details.

On foot: The museum is on the corner of Left Bank and Bridge Street in the Spinningfields area of Manchester city centre, 5 minutes' walk from Waterstones bookshop on Deansgate.

By bike: Bike racks are located outside The Left Bank cafe bar entrance on Bridge Street.

Nearest train stations:

- Salford Central (2 min walk)
- Manchester Victoria (15 min walk)
- Manchester Piccadilly (20 min walk)
- Manchester Oxford Road (20 min walk)

Nearest tram stops:

- St Peter's Square (10 min walk)
- Deansgate-Castlefield (15 min walk)

Nearest bus stop: Bridge Street (2 min walk)

Nearest free bus stops:

- No 1: Gartside Street (1 min walk)
- No 2: Gartside Street (1 min walk)
- No 3 (evening service): John Rylands Library, Deansgate (4 min walk)

By car: The museum has no onsite car parking. The nearest car parks are:

- Bridge Street NCP (1 min walk)
- Spinningfields NCP, New Quay Street (4 min walk)

Visit Manchester City Council's website to find out more about pay and display parking bays and accessible parking in Manchester.

By coach: Drop off only outside the museum, opposite the main entrance on Left Bank. Visit Manchester City Council's website for more information on coach parking in Manchester.

Taxis: The nearest taxi rank is on Albert Square outside Manchester Town Hall (5-10 min walk) and there are several local taxi companies, who also offer accessible services.