

Gallery Interventions: Banner commission

Appendix

People's History Museum has over 450 historic and contemporary banners; including the largest and most important collection of trade union and political banners in the world, and the world's oldest trade union banner the Tin Plate Workers Society banner.

Here are some examples of the historic style that still influences banner design today.

Tin Plate Workers Society banner, 1821 ©
People's History Museum

PHM banners, Main Gallery Two @ People's History Museum

Operative Bricklayers Society Emblem, 1869 © People's History Museum

Dockers Union banner, 1890s © People's History Museum (front and back)

Ipswich Dockers Union banner, about 1900 © People's History Museum (front and back)

National Builders', labourers and Construction workers society banner © People's History Museum (front and back)

